YOU HAVE TALENT TOO!

Martin Fontanellaz + Anna Horak
Hardback / 220 x 280 mm / 36 pages

Tove would love to have a talent. While everyone else seems to shine effortlessly — whether at football, chess, or music — he can't even manage the simplest card trick. Frustrated, he heads off to the park, where he meets Helin, Antonio, Cleo, and Dani. An adventurous afternoon begins, during which all the children discover their hidden strengths.

THE NOISE MONSTER

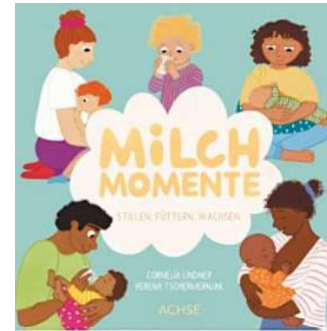

Johanna Schmidt + Judith Vrba
Hardback / 220 x 280 mm / 48 pages

In the middle of the night, Jakob hears a strange noise in the children's room. Could there be a racket-making creature in the walls? Soon the whole house is awake: Ali bravely grabs her guitar, Milo listens intently, and the tiniest sound seems monstrously huge at night.

MILKY MOMENTS

Cornelia Lindner + Verena Tschernjak
Hardback / 190 x 190 mm / 20 pages

All babies need milk, but every family has its own unique way of doing it. This lovingly designed board book shows children a variety of everyday breastfeeding and feeding situations. The topics of weaning and bottle-feeding are also naturally addressed. Also, FROM YES TO NO.

Nina wants nothing more than her very own monster. One that's so scary that no one will dare to annoy or bully her anymore. When she finds a monster agency's mail order catalogue, it looks like her dream may be about to come true. But when the long-awaited delivery finally arrives, the box contains not big, scary Walter, but an ever-scared mini-monster called Mimi...

«Ich freu mich, Sie kennenzulernen! Mein Name ist Walter, sind vielleicht noch mehr von diesen Federn da? Die prädeln so schön, wenn man sie runterschleckt.»
 «Ninas Eltern sind überhaupt nicht begeistert, dass Walter bei ihnen eingezogen ist.
 «Nur für eine Nacht», sagt ihre Mama.
 «Und keine einzige mehr», sagt ihr Papa.
 Beim Abendessen darf Walter nicht dabei ist. Das große, blaue Monster muss so lange in Ninas Zimmer bleiben.
 «Der hat bestimmt keinen Hunger, der hat doch schon unter Sofa gegessen», sagt Ninas Papa.
 «Und die Schokolade unten auf dem Spielplatz, das hat mir eine Nachbarin erzählt», sagt Ninas Mama.
 Dafür erlauben ihm Ninas Eltern beim Vorlesen zu hören. Auch wenn Walter die Geschichte über das ängstliche Monster doch findet. Nur auf das Sofa darf er nicht. Auf dem sitzen Ninas und ihre Eltern. Obwohl das ziemlich unbequem ist, weil es keine Federung mehr hat.
 Danach hat schon wieder Schlafesusen, obwohl morgen ja Sonntag ist. Da muss Nina nicht zur Schule und anschulern kann sie auch. Nina glaubt, dass ihre Eltern wegen Walter ein bisschen sauer sind und sie deswegen so früh im Bett schicken haben.
 Walter liegt auf dem Teppich neben Ninas Bett und knabbert an einer Schöle von Ninas elektrischen Eisenbahn. Er

TRIXI

Linda Schwalbe

Hardback / 185 x 245mm / 100 pages

Trixi is a twinkly and fickle moth, or more precisely a hummingbird hawkmoth whom people often take for a true feathered hummingbird. Swift like a spring breeze, she flies and races around with her best friend, Siggie the fly. But always getting mistaken for a hummingbird makes Trixi miserable: as soon as people realize she is no bird but a big moth, they turn away from her in disgust.

This colourful comic encourages children to take pride in what makes them unique and to support each other. It also highlights how insects aren't "disgusting" at all but beautifully diverse and deserving of a place in our world.
